Attorneys will receive one-fourth of the $11,000 awarded the four children of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, of Hagerstown, according to petitions approved by the county court Saturday.

The petitions pertained to trespass actions brought by Mrs. Margaret R. Bailey, Hagerstown, as administratrix of the estates of John M. Spangler Sr. and his wife, Ruth D. Spangler, who were fatally injured in an auto accident near Littlestown, Christmas Day, 1958. The suits, against Rob-J. Yingling, Littlestown R. 1, and Lucy G. Eller, Littlestown, as administratrix of her late husband's estate, were for the benefit of the four Spangler children, Rebecca A., Judith E., John Jr. and Sara J. Spangler.

In a directed verdict in Adams County court this term Yingling was ordered to pay $3,000 to the Spangler children in the one case and $8,000 in the other. The jury verdict did not assign attorneys' fees. The petition to the court Saturday by Mrs. Bailey noted she had agreed to payment of $750 to Attorney Omer T. Kaylor Jr., Hagerstown, and Attorney S. M. Raffensperger, Gettysburg, in the one case, where $3,000 was awarded and $2,000 to the two attorneys in the other case in which $8,000 was awarded. Judges have selected a photograph by Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, Gettysburg R. D., as "best of show" at the 28th annual exhibition of the Cumberland Valley Photographic Salon at the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, Hagerstown.

Because of the selection of his print as best, Dr. Hewetson, a member of the staff at the Ardenville Fruit Laboratory, will receive the Fahmy Award, given annually by the Fahmy Photo Center at Hagerstown.

Two "best prints" are selected at the show, one by the judges and the other by the vote of the general public cast during the first two weeks of the exhibition. Sometimes the judges and the public agree on the best print, sometimes the public selection differs from the judges' selection.

19 Local Prints Hung

Hans Marx, Robert W. Lapham and James Halman, an art director, were the judges for the Hagerstown photographic show. Dr. Hewetson won the Fahmy Award with his picture, "The Toll of the Sea" which also won first prize in the pictorial division of the black and white prints section of the show.

Of the 44 prints chosen for the show from among many entries, 19 were made by members of the Gettysburg Photographic Society. Four were portraits: "Joyce" by Paul G. Pensinger; "Portrait No. 3" by C. Robert Ziegler; "All Pooled Up" by Dr. Francis Mason and "Beezie" by Joseph Kendlhart.

It was decided to establish November 11 as Veterans' Day to honor all the men who fought for the nation. ## DELONE HIGH IS PRAISED Gettysburg and the entire area may be proud of the high school the Catholic parishes have created at Delone, Rev. Fr. William F. Lyons, principal at Delone Catholic High School, said Sunday morning at a breakfast held by the Hold Name Society of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church at the parochial school here following attendance at the 8 a.m. mass at the church.

Outlining the work of the school at McSherrystown, Father Lyons described how it receives its support and its students from Catholic parishes in the area, including Gettysburg. The school is operated economically, with a cost per pupil below that considered normal in most similar public school operations, he said.

Speaking of the youth of the area "as seen at Delone," Father Lyons praised the teen-agers generally and held that "while we are prone to condemn teen-agers when they get into trouble we perhaps should blame the parents."

Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church, here spoke briefly in greeting to the Holy Name men.

Daniel Sanders, president of the society, presided at the breakfast program.

Tanker Fire In Houston's Harbor Takes Eighth Life

By JIM BOWMAN
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The tanker Amoco Virginia, its plates buckled and ripped by fire and explosion Sunday, claimed an eighth victim today when city fireman D. H. Chandler drowned aboard the ship. Twenty-five persons suffered injury.

The fire aboard the 12,000-ton tanker threatened the heart of the nation's largest oil refining and petrochemical center for 19 hours Sunday.

The vessel's captain, R. R. Combs, and six of the 40 crew members perished.

Seeking Cause
Chandler, 28, apparently stepped into a hole in a submerged portion of the ship.

Investigators climbed over the buckled plates in search of clues as to the cause of the fire. Groups probing the destroyed hull were the FBI, Coast Guard, the American Oil Co., and Hess Terminal, where the ship is tied up. The fire broke out less than four hours before the American Oil Co.'s 12,000-ton tanker was to sail for Albany, N.Y.

The flames, feeding on 135,000 barrels of high test gasoline and fuel oil in the vessel's bunkers, threatened the heart of the nation's biggest oil refining and petrochemical center for 19 hours before firemen brought it under control.

Hoffa Fails To Lure AFL-CIO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Teamsters President James R. Hoffa's offer to cooperate politically with the AFL-CIO in the 1960 elections apparently is falling flat.

The big federation has kicked out both Hoffa and his scandal-plagued union, calling them a disgrace to the labor movement. It gave every indication of snubbing his new overture.

The AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department, opening a two-day convention here today, may discuss the matter before adjourning. It is headed by Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, who helped to lead the drive to expel the Teamsters from AFL-CIO ranks.

Hoffa has announced plans to raise a fund of millions of dollars for a Teamster drive to defeat Congress members he opposes.

VETERANS' DAY

men who fought before our country became a nation. Those men who fought the French and the Indians and later the English. Those men who left their homes and firesides to fight in the Revolution to make this country a nation.

Recalls Lincoln's Words

"We must fight to preserve democracy so that in the words of Abraham Lincoln 'Government by the people, for the people, shall not perish from this earth'."

William G. Weaver, a past commander of the Lentz Post, placed a wreath at the base of the Soldiers' National Monument, "honoring all men of all wars who fought for our nation."

Frank Kosicki, state commander of the CWV, referring to the recent visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, said, in part: "We now accept Mikoyano and Kozlov and Khrushchev who are dedicated to destroy us and our freedom and to destroy the hope we have been to those who have lost their freedom."

Questions Gain

"If treaties, summit conferences, U. N. sessions, diplomatic exchanges and every other item of international machinery is always deliberately wrecked by Russia, what could America hope to gain by a mere visit? In the light of Russian purpose, activity, and deception the entire arrangement seems to be based on America's wishful thinking. Statesmanship is not statesmanship if it is based on wishful thinking."

"Khrushchev speaks of coexistence and I am reminded of the scholastic riddle: What happens when an irresistible force meets an immovable object? You know the answer. The riddle is a contradiction. Both cannot exist simultaneously. If a force is irresistible then there can be no immovable object. On the other hand, if an immovable object exists, then there is no such thing as an irresistible force."

"So it is with coexistence. Khrushchev says communism is irresistible and he is dedicated to prove it. The free world says freedom must prevail, that it cannot be entirely destroyed by any totalitarian force. Obviously these beliefs clash and will meet in the world arena, no they have met and all Khrushchev's lies and blandishments do not alter this fact. Khrushchev speaks of coexistence but in arrogance he tells us he is dedicated to bury us."

"Some Taken In"

"During this tour Khrushchev smiled and shook hands and kissed babies and exchanged gifts. Some of our people were taken in. Some of our leaders were taken in. But the millions who have lost their lives and their freedom tell us it would be national suicide to believe in the man who is now the plundering, murdering scourge of the earth. This is not a figure of speech. There is ample documentation on his background as a mass murderer."

"Veterans must see to it that American public opinion watch with the gravest vigilance, think with a clear head, speak to its statesmen with unyielding insistence, remember its captive brethren, keep its guard up, its powder dry and its patient faith in God. To do less would be the betrayal of the comrades who gave their lives for freedom. It would be to betray the dead who lie buried here. It would render useless every sacrifice ever made by an American service man. It would mean the ultimate triumph of Khrushchev's visit — which God forbid."

The units were called to attention and the American Legion honor guard fired two volleys. Edward A. Hughes, bugler, played taps.

The benediction was offered by the Rev. Fr. LeRoy Spisak, assistant pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church.

taffeta styled with a satin cummerbund. Her white headpiece was of net attached to a half-hat of velveteen flowers. She carried a bouquet of assorted fall flowers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Eugene F. Weaver, Hanover, sister of the bride, and Miss C. Kay Little, Littlestown, sister of the bridegroom. They wore gowns fashioned identical to that worn by Mrs. Barnes, in aqua, with matching headpieces. Their bouquets were of similar fall flowers. The flower-girl was Bonnie Jean Weaver, Hanover, niece of the bride, who wore a white dress and head wreath. She carried a basket of assorted fall flowers.

The bridegroom chose for his best man Eugene Sentz, Hanover, a friend. Serving as ushers were Michael T. Quincannon, Chuck McAnnally and Fred Oesterrick, all friends of the groom stationed with the United States Marine Corps at Cherry Point, N. C. The ring bearer was Donald J. Staub, Hanover, nephew of the bride.

Reception For 150

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Kingsdale Fire Hall, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd., with approximately 150 wedding guests in attendance.

The couple left on a wedding trip of unannounced destination. For traveling, the bride chose an Oxford gray dress styled with a full skirt, fitted bodice and red and black plaid jacket, with black accessories. She had a corsage of gardenias. Upon their return, Mrs. Little will reside at the home of her parents for the present, and Mr. Little will report for Marine Corps duty at Cherry Point, N. C.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, and is employed by the United Telephone Company as an operator in the Littlestown office. The groom was graduated in 1958 from Littlestown Junior-Senior High School and is now serving with the USMC as an aircraft mechanic at Cherry Point.

JOHNSON TO FIGHT TONIGHT

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

Harold Johnson keeps plugging along on his mission to get another title fight with light heavyweight champion Archie Moore.

Unbeaten in three years, the 31-year-old top-ranking contender from Philadelphia moves into the television spotlight—ABC 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time—Wednesday night when he faces Sonny Ray of Chicago. They clash in a 10-rounder at the Chicago Stadium.

Johnson is in position to put the heat on Ole Archie if he can score an eye-catching victory. Only a clean-cut knockout would do the job.

Ray, fifth-ranked, was stopped in his last start by Von Clay of Philadelphia. It took Clay five rounds to do that last Aug. 4. Ray, 23, has a 20-8-5 record. Johnson's record is 61-8, including 28 kayos.

In his one title fight with Moore five years ago, Johnson had the title in his grasp until he ran into a haymaker in the 14th round and was kayoed.

"WILD BILL"
LANGER DIES
SUNDAY AT 73

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William (Wild Bill) Langer (R-ND), a colorful political maverick both as governor and as senator, is dead at 73.

He spent 45 turbulent years in politics, the last 19 of them in the Senate.

Langer died in his sleep of heart failure Sunday at his home. He had been ailing since his wife, Lydia, died of cancer Aug. 4. He recently spent three weeks in a hospital with pneumonia.

Former Governor

Langer steered a safe course through many a political whirlwind. In 1934 he easily won nomination for re-election as governor of North Dakota although he was under a federal indictment for conspiracy. Eventually he was acquitted.

Only last year he won re-election — without making a single campaign speech — in spite of the opposition of his own state Republican organization.

In the Senate Langer voted against the Eisenhower administration more often than with it. He opposed Eisenhower's foreign policy. Anything proposed by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson was almost sure to bring Langer's opposition.

Typical Stand

Typical of Langer's often lonely political stands was one of his last Senate votes. He and Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) were the only senators to vote against the labor reform bill at the last session.

Another key party vote was on the confirmation of Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce earlier in the year. Two Republicans voted against Strauss — Langer and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine. Strauss's confirmation was defeated 49-46.

Langer was the fourth member of Congress to die within a week. The others were House members. Since Republican Gov. John Davis of North Dakota is sure to appoint a Republican to serve the rest of Langer's term, the Senate lineup of 65 Democrats and 35 Republicans will remain unchanged.

Ailing Boy, 7, Asks
For 2 Front Teeth

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Elmer Jones, seven-year-old Chambersburg, Pa., boy, doesn't feel he's completely healthy yet.

Little Elmer, who left St. Christopher's Hospital for Children today after undergoing a heart operation, wants two new front teeth for Christmas.

During the operation last month, Elmer's heart was stopped for 30 minutes as surgeons worked to close a hole.

He returned to the Children's Aid Society Home in Chambersburg, which sponsored the delicate operation and obtained 16 special blood donors.

Boy Is Killed In Hunting Accident

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — A shotgun blast fired by his brother killed 12-year-old Nicholas Holmes of Chester, Saturday in a hunting accident 25 miles north of here, police said.

Nicholas was hunting squirrels with his brother, Joseph Holmes, 14, and their father in a wooded area when the accident occurred.

Joseph said he spotted a squirrel and fired a blast from his double-barreled shotgun. As he prepared to fire again, Nicholas ran in front of him and caught the pellets in the back of his head.

COUNTAINS IN THREE CRASHES

A series of traffic accidents investigated by Hanover borough police Friday resulted in minor injuries to one motorist, three arrests for traffic violations and a $1,525 total damage. Each crash involved an Adams County driver.

W. D. Jacobs, 77, Hampton, was arrested for failing to yield the right of way to oncoming traffic after police said his car and an automobile operated by Clarence H. Trovinger Jr., Manchester R. 1, Md., collided at 12:35 p.m. at Fulton and E. Middle Streets.

Police said Jacobs, who was traveling north on Fulton St., stopped for a stop sign at the intersection and then pulled into the path of the Trovinger vehicle, traveling east on E. Middle St. Following the collision the Jacobs vehicle continued on and mounted the curb crashing into a cement block wall and iron fence at the home of Frank Little, E. Middle St. Jacobs suffered a small cut above the left eye in the incident.

Damage to the Jacobs vehicle was estimated at $500, to the Trovinger automobile at $250 and $150 to the fence.

A charge of driving too fast for conditions was filed by police against B. F. Aumen, New Oxford R. 2, after his car and a vehicle operated by Stathe Palerecas, Hanover, collided at Liberty Pl. and Carlisle St. at 3:35 p.m.

Police said Palerecas drove on to Carlisle St. heading south and was struck by the Aumen vehicle, traveling north on Carlisle St. Damage was estimated at $175 to the Palerecas vehicle, owned by Chris Fourlas, Hanover, and $100 to the Aumen car.

The third incident at 11:19 a.m. involved automobiles operated by Daniel J. Wonder, Hanover R. 3, and Paul K. Reese, Hanover.

Police reported Reese was traveling east on Frederick St. and as he entered the square he stopped suddenly to allow traffic to enter from Carlisle St. and was struck in the rear by the Wonder vehicle. Damage was estimated at $200 to the Wonder vehicle and $150 to the car driven by Reese.

Informations on all three arrests were filed before Justice of the Peace William Y. Naill Jr., Hanover.

COLLEGE GRAD
IS HONORED

The Rev. Dr. Kenneth S. Ehrhart is marking completion of 25 years of service as pastor of the Jefferson Lutheran Church with a series of services this month in the four churches comprising his pastorate.

The services opened at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at Trinity Church, Jefferson. The Rev. Dr. Dwight F. of the Central Pennsylvania Synod, delivered the sermon.

The service at Bethlehem Church, Seltz, will be conducted Sunday, November 15, at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. Claude R. Baublitz, a son of the church, will be the speaker. The Rev. Dr. Ralph C. Robinson, secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Synod, also was scheduled to speak at Bethlehem Church but had to cancel his engagement because of illness.

A service will be held Sunday, Nov. 22, at 10:30 a.m. in Zion Church, near Hanover Junction, and the final service in commemoration of the anniversary will take place Sunday, Nov. 29, at St. Jacob's Church, Brodbeck.

Congregational fellowships will be held at each of the churches on the day of the service.

Dr. Ehrhart, who was born at Brodbeck in 1904, became pastor of the Jefferson Charge Nov. 1, 1934, succeeding his father, the Rev. William H. Ehrhart, who had served the pastorate 31 years. He was graduated from Glenville High School in 1921, from Gettysburg College in 1925, and from the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, in 1928.

May Tie In Bicentennial
Of Mason-Dixon Line With
Civil War Events In '63

One of the five-mile markers along the Mason-Dixon line stands on the Adams County-Maryland border a short distance south of Zora in a farm yard. One side bears the coat of arms of Maryland and the other the Pennsylvania emblem.

By ED DUBBS

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania are hoping to tie in the 200th anniversary of the Mason-Dixon line in 1963 with the Civil War centennial.

Before Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon made their first survey in 1763, the heirs of William Penn and George Calvert, the Lord Baltimore, were involved in bitter boundary disputes dating back to the 1680's.

Less than 100 years ago the symbolic line between Pennsylvania and Maryland divided the free and the slave states.

Historic Boundary

Time has healed the bitter wounds. Now the three states are joining to promote their historical boundaries.

The biggest task in working toward a 1963 celebration will be the restoring of the chipped and crooked stone markers between Maryland and Delaware. The two states are looking to the federal government to provide funds for a resurvey of the boundary.

There is no dispute this time. Maryland and Delaware don't want to spend money to restore or replace markers along the boundary unless they know they are putting them back in the right place, explains William H. Bayliff, executive secretary of the Maryland Board of Natural Resources. The board is responsible for this state's boundaries.

Some Markers Restored

Bayliff says the markers are in "wretched shape." The ones along the Pennsylvania-Maryland boundary, Bayliff notes, are in comparatively good condition, having been restored in the early 1900s.

The Maryland-Delaware line has been almost completely neglected for nearly two centuries, Bayliff said.

Maryland and Delaware were able to obtain congressional approval in 1955 for a U.S. Coast Guard and geodetic survey of the Mason-Dixon line between the two states.

Await Funds

President Eisenhower signed the measure but Congress never provided companion legislation authorizing the funds for the survey.

There the matter stands, except for a reconnaissance by the Coast Guard in 1956 to determine the best procedure and the probable cost of the survey.

The last complete survey of all the markers along the boundaries between the two states was made in 1950 from a $3,000 allocation from the Maryland Board of

Funeral services for Mrs. Ora Rittenhouse, 79, who died Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Cumberland Twp. were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville. Rev. Harry E. Robinson, Carlisle, officiated. Burial was in the Bendersville Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: J. Robert Fair, Ralph Barrick, Lloyd Doner, Bert West, John Richardson and Alvin Group.

Public Works.

One Completely Buried

These were the findings: The Maryland-Pennsylvania line: Of the 217 markers, all but four were located and photographed. Of the four missing, one was believed to have been submerged in a pool above the Conowingo Dam on the Susquehanna River, and another was reported by the Pittsburgh District of the Army Corps of Engineers to have been removed from the site of what is now the Youghiogheny Reservoir.

What happened to the other two is anybody's guess.

Many of the stones found were badly weathered, out of plumb, chipped and some were badly broken and in danger of being washed away or covered by silt. One was completely buried but uncovered.

Centuries Of Neglect

The North-South Maryland-Delaware line: Of 94 stone markers all but six were discovered.

The markers were found in worse shape than those along the Maryland-Pennsylvania line, having been almost completely neglected for 200 years while the Maryland-Pennsylvania boundary was restored in the early 1900s.

The East-West Maryland-Delaware line: Only eight markers had been placed along this boundary and all were found suffering from "nearly two centuries of neglect."

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop

57 met Friday afternoon at the Christ Lutheran Parish House with 17 girls present. Second Class Badge work was started which included the making and binding of a notebook. The girls who were absent are asked to attend the next meeting so that they can finish the project. Delores Adams, senior aide, assisted the leaders, Mrs. Frank Bruner and Mrs. Rex Maddox.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

We take pleasure in announcing that there will be a fair and festival during the holidays for the benefit of the People's Band. This affair is in the hands of officers and active parties and will be "done up" handsomely. The band in question is eminently worthy of this distinction and the friends of the young men composing it will doubtless be glad of the opportunity of testifying in a substantial way, their appreciation of the band. Their rapid progress in music, their perseverance and public spirit all commend them favorably to our citizens.

There is to be a military display at Hanover tomorrow and it promises to be quite a pretty affair. The York Rifles, the Carroll County Rangers, a company from Arendtsville, and the Marion Rifle-men of Hanover will be the military assembled. The festivities of the day will wind up with a grand soiree and festival at Marion hall.

The farm of Mr. Minnich, near Gettysburg, was disposed of, on Saturday last, by J. B. Danner, Esq., Assignee, to Mr. Klinefelter, of the firm of Klinefelter & Co. of this place, for $1,630, cash.

Rev. David Eyser has purchased from Rev. Dr. Schmucker the "Old Academy" building on the corner of Washington and High streets for $2,750 cash. Rev. Mr. Eyser intends moving into it in the spring and will have it fixed up for his female seminary.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Gen. Sickles: There being some difference of opinion among military men as to the hour of the day at which Gen. Sickles was wounded, the following letter from the general will settle it. It was written in reply to a letter addressed to him by Mr. Grauth on the subject:

City of Mexico
October 24th, 1884
John M. Grauth
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: Your letter of the 5th inst., forwarded from New York, was received by me here yesterday, on my return from the south. Col. B. is mistaken as to the hour in the afternoon of the 3rd of July, '63, when I was wounded. I received my wound between half past five and six o'clock—the last memorandum in my field book was made at five thirty-eight p.m.

Thanking you for the interest shown in a matter which I supposed was forgotten by almost everybody, I remain,
Yours truly,
D. E. Sickles
Maj. Gen., U.S.A.

Literary And Musical Entertainment: A number of the young people of St. James Lutheran Church are arranging to give a public entertainment on the evening of the 21st inst., for the benefit of the church, similar to those they so successfully gave a year ago at the McClellan Opera House. They have engaged the services of the prince of cornetists, Prof. W. P. Chambers, of Harrisburg, who won such encomiums on a former visit for his wonderful performance on his chosen instrument, the cornet. There will also be a large and varied program of readings, tableaux, etc. The entertainment will be first class in all respects.

Mr. Editor — William Heller, aged ninety-four years, went five miles on Tuesday through the rain to the Menallen poll to vote for Blaine and Logan and Home Protection. He had arranged with a neighbor some time previous to take him in a vehicle. As, however, it was raining fast and the latter thought he had better go and see Mr. Heller before getting the conveyance, but he found the old patriot ready and anxious to go, rain or no rain. One man like him is worth a dozen stay at homes.

Today's Talk

BELONGINGS
There are many who do not worry about the rent, taxes, security and a multitude of other obligations, so as to stay alive and work for a universal companionship; but with courage and patience and kindness we can find equipment to make any of us a genuine success. Faith can see us through!

Many of us worry too much over belongings. More than this should be our heritage of life and our position in having belongings able to carry us all into usefulness and every emergency. We all need happinesses to give us uplift and all absence of fear. Worry should have no space in our plan of life.

If we have belongings we must remember that we are the custodians of them. If we have a love for them, they should pass to those who have a like love. The world has been enriched by such a procedure. Each time that loves grows greater. This is what has happened in the preservation of the masterpieces of art that have had such an influence in the world.

As a modest collector of etchings and rare books, over a number of years, I spent much of that time searching for scarce and uncommon items. I got my thrills of beauty, and have enriched several colleges, but in going so I got double joy, for now many, many lovers of these treasures can enjoy what so much I have enjoyed. Many of these belongings will be available to thousands to view and love as I have loved them.

Hobbyists and interests, intelligently handled, never lose their joy and influence, as investments in beauty. They stir and warm the heart!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Who Owns the Most?"

Just Folks

WONDERIN'
Wonder where the wind is going,
Where it rests when it ain't blowing?

Wonder when the birds go by
How they first learned they could fly?

Wonder, an' I'd like to know,
What it is that makes us grow?

Wonderin' somethin' all the time!
Got a cat an' he can climb
Any free however tall,
But my dog can't climb at all.

Tell me, if you answer that,
Why dogs love to chase a cat?

Flowers growin' in a bed,
Some are white an' some are red,
An' as far as I can see
No one tells 'em what to be.

How's it happen; an' who knows
What it is that paints the rose?

Who holds all the stars in place,
High up there in empty space?
An' will some one tell me why
Stomach ache is put in pie?

Seems the older that I grow
There's so much I'd like to know.

CLOSE BATTLE

AID TO ORANGE

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Football coaches don't like them so close—like Syracuse's squeak over Penn State—but Ben Schwartzwalder thinks the 20-18 victory at University Park, Pa., Saturday "might have been a Godsend" for his undefeated Orangemen.

A big victory over previously unbeaten Penn State could possibly have spelled trouble for Syracuse in the three regular-season games left. Schwartzwalder said after the triumph.

"This might have been a Godsend," he explained. "The boys might have been getting to the point where it was hard to tell them that things might go wrong."

Syracuse's next foe is Colgate, which broke a 12-game losing streak by downing Bucknell, 16-13. The traditional game will be played Saturday in Syracuse.

On the eve of the Syracuse-Penn State game, Schwartzwalder said he'd be happy to settle for a one-point victory. His forecast of the outcome was close.

Kindig's Lane, about 100 yards from the Oxford Road and about two miles from Hanover, a man attempted to jump in the front part of the wagon. He got up on the double-tree and was almost in the wagon before Mr. Lawrence saw him. Mr. L. struck the scamp a heavy blow with his whip, causing him to leap down and run away in a hurry.

SMALL WORLD WITH STONED ACTOR SHOWN

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—At one point during Sunday evening's four-way "Small World" talk, Brendan Behan, in Dublin, shouted to Jackie Gleason in New York "How am I coming through?"

"You're coming through 100 proof," replied Gleason.

"We're being killed by an Irish mob," complained critic and lecturer John Mason Brown, bitterly.

Behan, the Irish playboy and playwright, was hardly in any condition for an exchange of ideas on the art of conversation. In fact he could hardly converse at all. Behan was, to put it frankly, stoned, and when he wasn't breaking with rambling, pointless stories, he was bursting into unintelligible song.

New CBS Policy

After the middle commercial, however, he was seen no more. But while he was part of "Small World," he certainly stole the show. By contrast, things were pretty dull after he disappeared.

It is interesting that the show was permitted air time by CBS. Behan obviously was loaded when the show was recorded and filmed almost a month ago—a date which host Ed Murrow gave us in conformity with CBS' new "nothing up our sleeves" policy.

A Wild One

Sunday Showcase, NBC's weekly hour-long special, may not always ring a bell with its effort to provide something different, but it is just about the only prime time network program which dares stray from the beaten path. Sunday night it tried a science-fiction whodunit.

It was a wild one, called "Murder and the Android," set far in the future when human beings are able to travel around to 27 planets and when all their work and thinking is done by synthetic slave creatures called androids. Androids look so much like men that they are identified by the letter "A" carved on their foreheads. I'm not much of a one for science fiction, so I don't have any standards to go by. I kept thinking they ought to have called this one "Frankenstein Among the Planets," even though Rip Torn, who played the android, makes a very decorative monster. Besides, this plot had a switch: at the end, the bad human is dead and the good android—who had complained that "my father was a chemist; my mother was a pyrex beaker"—was discovering love.

Fred Haney To Telecast Games

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fred Haney has resigned as manager of the Milwaukee Braves, but he'll be back in major league baseball next season — as a telecaster. Haney and Tom S. Gallery, director of sports for the National Broadcasting Co., announced jointly Sunday that Fred will work on NBC's weekend baseball telecasts. Haney replaces former big league manager Leo Durocher, who resigned his NBC post. The broadcasting business is not new to Haney. He did the radio play-by-play on Pacific Coast League games here from 1943 through 1948.

SEN. HUMPHREY RUNNING HARD FOR 1960 NOD

Editor's note: Presidential politics is away to an unprecedented early start. Candidates whirl about the land. The Associated Press, has been looking over and analyzing this abundant crop. Here Arthur Edson, who in his 15 years on the Washington staff has kept a lively, questioning eye on politicians, makes his report on his travels with Sen. Hubert Humphrey.

By ARTHUR EDSON

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Officially the temperature was 13 degrees, but a fierce wind kicked up the snow, swirling it across the unprotected airport and made it seem far colder.

The hatless man in the salt and pepper overcoat, his high forehead a brilliant pink, ran full speed across the snow and ice toward the waiting plane.

This reporter, skittering alongside managed to ask: "It is always like this?"

"Yep," said Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.). As usual, he was the last man up the ramp, arriving seconds before the plane took off.

Short On Money

This scene coldly illustrates what Humphrey is up against in his efforts to convince Democrats he is their logical choice for the presidential nomination at their Los Angeles convention next summer.

Since he's short on money, he has to run pretty much on his own.

"It takes a lot of money," Humphrey, 48, says. He reads with envy the stories about, say, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) traveling in a chartered plane, preceded by publicity men beating drums to herald his coming.

Last Week's Schedule

Humphrey has been traveling with one man, Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag of Minnesota, on regularly scheduled flights, which often means getting up early or leaving at inappropriate times.

Here's Humphrey's schedule for successive days last week:

He was in Iowa to talk to a state teachers convention. His speech was, in theory at least, non-political, and he was paid for it. He was in North Dakota for a farmers union meeting. He was here in Lincoln for the Nebraska Democratic convention dinner.

"Real Scrapper"

Considering the weather, the crowds have been good. More than 2,000 heard him in Bismarck, N.D. Only the seats high up in the rafters remained unfilled. Here Saturday night a capacity dinner crowd of 468 donated $7.50 each to the party to hear Humphrey talk.

In this area Humphrey dwells on the farm problem. But he also stresses this contention: that the Republican party has failed to develop forceful, imaginative leadership, that as a result we're losing our advantage in our race with the Soviet Union, that Republicans are more interested in public relations than public service, and that if the Democrats are to win they must have a liberal who has zeal and drive, "a real scrapper."

He never says so, but the picture he paints of an ideal candidate looks astonishingly like Hubert H. Humphrey.

RAID ON ARMED CAMP REVEALS PLOT FOR PERON

TUCUMAN, Argentina (AP) — A raid on an armed camp in the mountains, police say, has uncovered a plot by followers of Juan D. Peron for a Castro-type guerrilla campaign to restore the exiled dictator to power.

Three youths were captured in the raid Saturday on the completely outfitted, well-armed camp 6,000 feet up in the mountains near this trading center 665 miles northwest of Buenos Aires.

The youths said they were re-

UPSETS SWEEP COLLEGE GRID THRU NATION

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Now that Cotton Letner's foot and Dale Hackbart's arm have booted and tossed the top echelon into a tizzy, what's next for this crazy, mixed-up pastime called college football?

Seventy-two hours ago, Louisiana State was rolling monotonously along with 19 straight victories, 14 weeks of domination of The Associated Press poll, and speculating on just who might be its opponent in another Sugar Bowl appearance. Right behind was Northwestern, whipping everything in sight in the Midwest, looking toward the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl.

Then Letner kcked—two conversions and LSU fell to Tennessee 14-13, and Hackbart passed—a pair of touchdowns and Wisconsin spilled Northwestern 24-19.

Some Bowl Eligibles

Now mighty LSU is no better off than in a three-way tie for third place in its own league, the Southeastern Conference. Three of the four, either tied or ahead of the Tigers are bowl eligibles of the likes of Georgia, Mississippi and Georgia Tech, with Tennessee another half-length behind as a result of a tie to go with its single loss. Auburn, second at 4-1 to lead Georgia (3-0), is out of it because of NCAA probation.

Northwestern now faces the challenge of winning a couple of tough road games, at Michigan State and at Illinois, in an attempt to grab back the roses from Wisconsin.

And when you consider a national leader, look at this partial roster:

Wide-open Scramble

Texas, with an 8-0 record and the Southwest Conference lead after a hairbreadth 13-12 escape over three-time beaten Baylor; Syracuse, 7-0 after holding off previously unbeaten Penn State's rally, 20-18; Southern California, 7-0 after thrashing much-thrashed West Virginia 36-0; Tennessee, Georgia, Mississippi, Auburn and LSU in the SEC; Northwestern and Wisconsin, both 6-1 and tied for the Big Ten lead; Clemson, the Atlantic Coast Conference leader, and others as dictated by your sectional preference.

It promises to be a wide-open scramble to the end of the season. If there's one thing last weekend seems to have proved it's that old equalizer has been at work and there isn't a dominant team—or even a dominant two or three—in the nation.

Some Bowl Prospects

It's a field day for the top ten pickers, and a case of supply far exceeding the demand for the plush spots in the major bowls.

Rose Bowl — Northwestern and Wisconsin tied for the Big Ten spot; Washington, Oregon and UCLA scrambling on the West Coast (Southern Cal is ineligible).

Unbeaten Hofstra's Passes Trip Bullets 18-6; Locals Miss 3 Scoring Chances

Led by the passing attack of seniors Lou Bauer and Tommy MacDonald and field goal kicking of junior Burt Swerdling, the Flying Dutchmen of Hofstra handed the Gettysburg Bullets their third setback of the season with an 18-6 win Saturday afternoon in a steady downpour in Hempstead, Long Island.

Hofstra, by winning their big game of the year, have now run their winning streak to six straight games without a loss. Gettysburg is 4-3 on the season and will be out to pull their second upset of the year when they travel to Buffalo, N. Y., next Saturday for an engagement with the Buffalo Bulls, defending Lambert Cup champs.

MacDonald proved himself a very capable quarterback as he threw 10 passes, completed four for 131 yards and one TD. He also ran five times for 16 yards. The senior quarterback's understudy, Lou Bauer, completed one of three aeriols for eight yards and one score.

Coach Gene Haas' Bullets ran into trouble from every angle. The defensive team failed to stop the air attack, but managed to confine the ground advance. The offensive outfit moved the ball into scoring position five times, but were able to capitalize only once.

Score Quickly
Hofstra took command immediately after the kickoff when they marched 78 yards for their first score with only 2:40 minutes gone in the game. Dick Cooney, Frank Mauro and MacDonald, on short ground gains, moved the ball to the 41 on four plays. MacDonald then struck with his first devastating blow of the afternoon with a 59-yard toss to left end Doug Lewis. A bad pass from center on the conversion attempt held the Dutchmen to a 6-0 lead.

The remainder of the first period was played in Hofstra territory behind the excellent punting of End Lance Butler. The major part of the second quarter was another continuous exchange of punts. Gettysburg had their backs to the goal line midway through the period when MacDonald booted a 54-yard punt to the Gettysburg eight where it went out of bounds. The Bullets managed to advance the pigskin out to the 22 on a short ground gain by Ed Lucas, Earl Little, Ernie Velten and Buddy Goodman, but a topnotch Dutchmen defense halted the Bullets and Butler was once again forced to punt.

Swerdling Boots Goal
With the ball on the home team's 45, Mauro carried to the middle stripe. MacDonald then fired a pass to his favorite receiver, Doug Lewis, who moved the play to the Bullets' seven completing a 44-yard pass play. Cooney moved down to the five and after two incomplete passes, end Burt Swerdling came in to hang up his first field goal of the afternoon as he booted from the 11-yard line with 2:45 minutes remaining in the first half.

Trailing 9-0 going into the third quarter, the Bullets began to pick up as Eddie Lucas recovered a Bill Kolb fumble on the opponent's 24. Lucas, on two carries moved the ball to the 11. Davidyock, Velten and Lucas then advanced to the four, but this was as far as the Bullets could go as they lost the ball on downs. After an exchange of punts, Lucas and Velten carried to the Hofstra 10, but this time the Bullets fumbled. Again Hofstra was forced to punt after three unsuccessful plays and the Bullets took over.

Gettysburg moved to the home team's 12-yard line once again with the help of Little's 21-yard aerial to Harry Richter, but again the Bullets were stopped on downs.

Little Scores
The Bullets finally crossed the goal line after four attempts when Redding Hicks returned a Bauer punt to the Hofstra 40. Little tossed to Chet Knight for nine yards followed by a 23-yard toss to Richter and another pass to Richter for 11 yards after the young quarterback carried for six. With the ball resting on the one-yard line, Little, on the keep, booted through the line for the Bullets' only score. Little's placement was wide.

The Dutchmen rapped up the game in the fourth period when they tallied nine points on a TD and other field goal. Before the host squad could score, the Bullets moved the ball to the Hofstra four as the fourth quarter got underway, but another fumble cost the Bullets their scoring chance.

With 6:20 minutes remaining in the game, Bauer tossed an eight-yard pass to end Bob DeNeef for a TD, climaxing a short 19-yard drive after Gettysburg fumbled. Swerdling's placement was particularly blocked. With 43 seconds remaining in the game, Swerdling converted his second field goal attempt, this time from the 13-yard line.

Jordan Goes To South America

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Welterweight Champion Don Jordan — under suspension at home — has taken off for South America.

The champion said before departing by plane Sunday that he probably would stay in South America two or three weeks. "If I can get rid of this flu virus," he said, "I may get a fight. If not, I'll come home."

Jordan said a South American promoter has offered him his pick of four opponents. Don said he would make brief stops at Miami and at points in Uruguay and Venezuela, then set up headquarters in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

The California Athletic Commission has suspended Jordan, partly because of his health and partly because of what one commissioner described as "his association with (ex-gambler) Mickey Cohen and other people."

FIELD GOAL BY REDSKINS BEATS COLTS

By ED WILKS
San Francisco's 49ers are the surprise club of the National Football League and no doubt about it. But the most surprised bunch has to be Baltimore's world champion Colts, who now have dropped two in a row.

A 46-yard field goal by Sam Baker with 12 seconds left gave the Washington Redskins a 27-24 upset over the chilled champs Sunday, sinking the Colts two games behind the 49ers in the race for the Western Conference title.

San Francisco swept to its fourth straight success, nixing a jinx as Abe Woodson took off on a 105-yard kickoff return in a 24-16 decision over the Rams at Los Angeles. The game at the Coliseum, usually a tough spot for the 49ers, drew the day's largest crowd—94,376.

In the Eastern Conference, three field goals by Pat Summerall carried New York (6-1) to its fifth straight victory. It was a 9-3 job on the Chicago Cardinals that retained the Giants' one-game edge over Cleveland. The Browns (5-2) broke a tie with Philadelphia for second place by whipping the Eagles 28-7.

The Chicago Bears tied Green Bay of the Packers their fourth Bay for third in the West by hand-straight defeat, 28-17. Pittsburgh tied Detroit 10-10 on Bobby Layne's touchdown pass in the final 3½ minutes. It was the first deadlock of the season in the NFL.

Baker's winning field goal against the Colts, set up by Tom Brattz' interception of a Johnny Unitas pass, was his second of the game and was held by Eddie LeBaron—the little guy who had a finger in all of the Skins' scoring.

Four TD Passes By Unitas
Little Eddie, a gutsy 5-7, kept the Skins ahead of the ever-rallying Colts, completing 16 of 32 passes for 208 yards and matching his season TD-pass total by pitching for two. He also caught the Colts cold with a pitchout to Ed Sutton, who then threw 22 yards to Joe Walton for a fourth-period touchdown that snapped a 10-10 tie.

Unitas, who passed for all four Baltimore TDs in last week's 38-31 loss to Cleveland tossed for two of the Colts' three at Washington and completed 15 of 35 for 264 yards. He now has 19 scoring passes for the season and has run his record scoring streak to 32 games.

The 49ers, now 6-1 to Baltimore's 4-3, got the crusher when Woodson whizzed after Los Angeles had cut San Francisco's edge to 17-10 in the third period. The only longer kickoff return in NFL records is a 106-yarder by Green Bay's Al Carmichael in 1956.

The other 49er TDs came on Y. A. Tittle's 57-yard pass to Billy Wilson and J. D. Smith's yard plunge.

Summerall, who booted a pair of 49-yard field goals in last week's 20-3 victory over Green Bay, scored on 37, 49 and 20-yard kicks against the Cards. The Giants, who haven't allowed a touchdown in two games, three times halted the Cardinals inside the New York 20. John Crow twice galloped 73 yards for the Cards, who were held to Bobby Conrad's 25-yard field goal in the second period.

The Giants, playing without No. 1 quarterback Chuck Conerly, who is injured, also lost George Shaw, who jammed a thumb in the second period. Don Heinrich was at quarter throughout the second half.

Big Day For Brown
After scoring all five of Cleveland's TDs against the Colts last week, Jimmy Brown counted the Browns' first two against the Eagles on a 20-yard run and a plunge. That gave him 10 TDs and 62 points—tops in the league—and he upped his No. 1 rushing total to 862 yards with 125 on 29 carries.

Two fumbles by Packer Paul Hornung were converted into touchdowns and a 140 first period lead by the Bears, who put it away on Ed Brown's 36-yard pass to Harlon Hill in the second period.

BULLIS PREP NIP FROSH ON PASSES 36-14

A strong passing attack on the part of quarterback Bob Sutton, completely paralyzed the Gettysburg Frosh as undefeated Bullis Prep captured a 36-14 decision, Saturday afternoon on the Little Bullets' field.

Sutton threw three TD passes, ran for another and tossed 26 aeriols for ten completions for 235 yards. Even though the Bullets intercepted five of Sutton's tosses, the young quarterback continued to use the air where the Bullets were the weakest.

Coach Jack Ridinger's frosh outfit opened fire early in the first frame. Ron Council, Bullet fleet halfback, intercepted a Sutton pass on his own 38 and brought it back to the 48. Howard Wilbraham, on the keeper off left tackle, streaked 23 yards to the opponent's 29. Dick Helbig, Jack Sabo and Wilbraham carried to the 18 on three plays. Wilbraham then spotted Dick Clower in the end zone and the Bullets had their first score. Helbig's placement was good.

Visitors Take Lead
Before the end of the first period, Bullis carried the ball to the Gettysburg four-yard line but a fumble stopped the drive. Bullis went out in front in the second quarter when Sutton threw a seven-yard pass to Bill Povich to cap a 57-yard drive. Sutton then passed to end Jerry Spears for the two extra points.

Coach Bob Hayes' Bullis squad loose in the third period as they tallied 22 points to put the game on ice. Sutton plunged over from a 30-yard aerial to halfback Nick Markoff followed by a Sutton to Spears conversion. Don Foley then closed the third stanza with a one-yard bolt after helping his team cover 43 yards, after a Wilbraham pass was intercepted. Sutton's kick was wide.

With Bullis leading 30-7 going into the final frame, Gettysburg came up with its final score. Wilbraham intercepted a Sutton pass and dashed 37 yards to the Bullis 20. Council, on an end sweep, jaunted into the end zone from 20 yards out for the score. Helbig's placement was perfect.

Following the kickoff, Bullis took over on its own 36, but because of penalties and ground losses, the ball was placed back on the 21. On third down and 24, Sutton cut loose with a 79-yard aerial to Don Foley for the final score. Again Sutton's placement was wide.

Gettysburg (2-2) will be out to close their season with a winning record when they travel to Baltimore Friday afternoon to tangle with the Johns Hopkins freshmen.

Eight More Drop From Undefeated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Eight more teams, including major schools, Louisiana State, Northwestern, and Penn State, jopped off college football's perfect record list over the week end, leaving a mere 25 survivors.

Among the 25 are just four major schools — Texas and North Texas State, with eight victories, and Syracuse and Southern California, each with seven in a row.

Syracuse chopped down Penn State 20-18 Saturday while LSU, which had won 19 straight, fell before Tennessee 14-13 and Northwestern lost to Wisconsin 24-19.

SYRACUSE AND PENNSTATEEYE BIDS TO BOWLS

By FRED WALTERS
UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Undefeated, untied Syracuse and its latest victim, once beaten Penn State, both expect the football bowl boys to come courting.

Syracuse won the hard fought game between the two eastern powers Saturday, 20-18. However, Penn State's final period rally that almost won the game left the loser in almost as good a position for a bowl bid as the winner.

The only bowl representative known to be on hand Saturday was from the Liberty Bowl, which will have its inaugural in Philadelphia Dec. 19.

Ambrose (Bud) Dudley, co-promoter of the Liberty Bowl, feels Syracuse, almost certain to win the Lambert Cup emblematic of eastern championship honors, would be a perfect host in his December bowl for an outstanding team from another section.

Expect Other Bids
Syracuse officials, according to Dudley, are definitely interested in his proposition which could mean upwards of $150,000 for each team. Both the Cotton and Orange Bowls probably will be hot after Syracuse.

Although Dudley's reaction was lukewarm, there was the possibility that a rematch of Penn State and Syracuse might make a good Liberty Bowl pairing. Dudley is anxious to match sectional champions if he can.

One factor that might rule out the Orange Bowl is that Kansas presumably will be the automatic Big Seven conference representative, and Syracuse has already beaten Kansas.

Hint At Liberty
Since Ernest B. McCoy, Penn State Athletic director, is on the Liberty Bowl selection board, the Nittany Lions might figure to lend their prestige to that newest of the post season classics.

Syracuse officials likewise refused to join in the speculation about the Nittany Lions' post season plans.

Penn State Coach Rip Engle said a bowl bid would be up to the university officials, but he commented that such an invitation "would do my boys a lot of good."

To Promote Sophomore
Meanwhile, Engle said sophomore speedster Roger Kochman probably will be promoted to the starting backfield.

The 190-pound halfback from Pittsburgh scored Penn State's first touchdown Saturday on a 17-yard run, and touched off a last quarter rally that provided a thrilling finish to the battle of the two unbeaten teams.

After Syracuse had scored its third touchdown, Kochman took the kickoff and dashed a hundred yards for Penn State's second score. Moments later tackle Andy Synchrona blocked a punt to set up State's third touchdown.

The difference in the scoring was Bob Yates' two placements after Syracuse touchdowns.

PROVIDENCE BOUNCES BACK TO SNARE TWO

The Providence Reds are back in business, a fact that doesn't auger well for their six rivals in the American Hockey League.

SCHOOL GRIDS STAYING BUSY THROUGH WEEK

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP) — East Pennsboro High School became a select list of one over the week-end with a 40-0 victory over Susquehanna. It was East Pennsboro's ninth victory of the season without defeat or tie and the ninth time its opponent has failed to score.

Patton was the only other member of that list until Friday, when Moshannon Valley crossed the Cambria County school's goal. Patton won, however, 32-7, to remain on the unbeaten-untied list.

Northern Cambria could change that. It meets Patton in a Veterans Day game and the once-beaten Western Conference "A" team has been very tough this season.

Clincher For Lancaster
With a handful of games on tap for the midweek holiday, there'll be scholastic football action every day this week. Monday's and Tuesday's games are mostly a carry-over from last weekend when rain once again laced into the schedule.

One of Tuesday night's big games is a regularly scheduled contest, however, matching two all-winning schools for the Crawford County title. Sagerstown and Conneaut Valley met earlier, but rain halted proceedings before either team could score.

In last weekend's games, Lancaster won the "game of the week" and clinched the Central Penn title at the same time. The Red Tornadoes shut out Harrisburg Harris, 20-0, while the only other team with a chance, Harrisburg Penn, was being upset by Williamsport, 19-6.

Conferences Decided
In other top games, Easton defeated Allentown, 10-0; Kingston Catholic upset West Scranton, 12-8; Braddock extended its unbeaten string to 54 with a 15-12 victory over Scott High and Grove City won the Mercer County "A" title with a 20-13 victory over Hickory Twp.

The major conference championships decided so far are: Roosevelt Trail, Sayre (repeat) Central Penn, Lancaster South Penn, Hanover, Susquehanna, Lock Haven, Section II (Northwest), Franklin.

Mercer County "A", Grove City, Erie County Big Seven, Erie Cathedral Prep, Little Seven Southern, Brockway.

HORVATH IS PACING BRUINS IN HOCKEY LOOP

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If you are looking for one of the big reasons the Boston Bruins are tied for second place in the National Hockey League, stop when you reach the name of Bronco Joseph Horvath.

Bronco, that is his correct first name, leads the league in goals with 15. Seven of them have been in the Bruins' last four games as they won all of them to move into a tie with Detroit, five points back of the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens.

Two of them came Sunday night at the Bruins extended the Chicago Black Hawks' winless string to 12 games by a 5-3 score. Boston has scored 25 goals in the last four victories and 53 goals in 14 games over-all.

Tie Canadiens
The Hawks managed a 2-2 tie with the Canadiens Saturday night but still remained deep in the cellar as the New York Rangers snapped a three-game losing streak in tying the Detroit Red Wings 3-3 Sunday. The Wings also were involved in a tie Saturday, a 2-2 affair with Toronto.

The Bruins and Hawks got mixed up in a wild third period. Boston's Charlie Burns received a head injury when he collided with Chicago's Pierre Pilote and had to be assisted from the ice. The Rangers came from behind twice in the final period to gain their tie. Norm Ullman figured in all of Detroit's goals. He scored one unassisted and set up the others.

JACK MULHALL IN NEW ROLE IN MOVIE WORLD

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — After 55 years as an actor, former star Jack Mulhall is getting into a new kind of work.

"But I'm still dealing with actors, still working on movie sets and still having a wonderful time," said Jack, as jaunty and cheerful as when he played the young go-getters in silents and early talkies.

His new role is field representative for the Screen Actors Guild.

Had Share Of Acting

"I had been doing pretty well as an actor," he said, "working as much as I wanted to. In fact, I had just played in a pilot film for a TV series. Then the SAG came along with this offer. It sounded like a new adventure, so I took it."

"This means I can't take acting jobs now, but strangely enough, I don't miss acting. I've had my share of it for a while."

His career goes way back to 1904, when he started with a mud show in Passaic, N.J. A mud show was a traveling outfit, and Jack was a boy Irish tenor in the troupe headed by an English escape artist.

Jack, now 65, graduated to films in 1912, working for the Thomas A. Edison company in New York.

THANK YOU

I sincerely wish to thank all of my friends and voters of Adams County, who voted, supported and helped elect me to the office of County Auditor.

He came west in 1914 to play in the flickers at $25 a week, plus expenses. He had nowhere to go but up, and he made it right to the top.

"I made a million dollars from 1917 to 1930," he recalled with no trace of regret, "and at one time I owned a million dollars in property. I was in the milk business, the oil business, the haberdashery business — I was spread all over the map."

"Where did it all go? My earning power was suddenly cut off, and I couldn't keep up the payments."

"I knew it was all over when they started saying, 'This part calls for a young Jack Mulhall.' They started bringing new breezy young actors in like Robert Montgomery, James Dunn and Chester Morris, and I was out in the cold."

8 Per Cent Of Americans Is Color Blind

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail.

Wearing red clothing in woodland areas during the deer hunting season is no guarantee you won't be mistaken for a buck and shot. It is estimated that eight per cent of America's 1,200,000 hunters are color blind.

You cover your mouth when you yawn out of politeness, but in the superstition-ridden past people did so out of fear. They were afraid an evil spirit might enter their bodies.

Shortage Of Doctors

One of the world's greatest shortages today is in doctors. In some countries there is only one doctor for every 180,000 inhabitants.

Our quotable notables: "Our liberty depends on freedom of the press," said Thomas Jefferson, "and that cannot be limited without being lost."

Jew As President?

How far do you drive your car each year? The figure for the average motorist is 9,571 miles.

If you want to get kicked by a cow, one of the surest ways is to try to milk it from the wrong side. Cows are traditionally milked from the right side.

On the political front: Could a Jew be elected president of the United States in this generation? Of 47 Republican and Democratic party leaders asked this question by the Jewish Digest, 31 replied yes.

The Old West isn't altogether miles north of Doylestown.

Barry Quickel, 18, of York, died Saturday night of injuries suffered in a car accident earlier that day.

John B. Regg, 23, of Coudersport, died Sunday when his car struck a bridge near Coudersport.

ASKS VIRGINIA TO LEAVE ACC

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP) — The Winchester Star suggested editorially today that the University of Virginia withdraw from the powerful Atlantic Coast Conference and seek membership in the Ivy League.

The newspaper said Virginia's dismal football record in the ACC — 4 conference games won, 25 lost since the league was formed in 1953 — "indicates a change is needed."

"Great emphasis on football seems incompatible with the general atmosphere of scholarship prevailing in Charlottesville," the editorial by Associate Editor Rufus Josey said. "Our university academic standards . . . are more in keeping with the Ivy League institutions than with any other group."

The newspaper said, "Virginia football fans and those in nearby states would be very much interested in games with Harvard, Cornell, Columbia, Yale, Princeton, Brown, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania. Big crowds would mean financial success."

Bus Filled With Soldiers Rams Into Truck; 29 Hurt

HIGHTSTOWN, N. J. (AP) — State police said that a bus filled with soldiers rammed the back of a southbound trailer-truck on the New Jersey Turnpike early today. Twenty-nine men were injured, none of them seriously.

Most of those aboard were dazed, returning to duty after furloughs and weekend passes. The impact of the crash hurled many from their seats.

Police said that apparently there was no panic. A number of the injured soldiers urged their companions to remain calm. All of them exited from the back side emergency door.

The bus, operated by the Public Service Coordinated Transport, was bound for the Army base at Ft. Dix from New York City. It had left the Port Authority Bus Terminal there and had stopped at Newark Airport before entering the turnpike.

Blame Bus Driver

The accident occurred some 20 miles north of Ft. Dix and about 35 miles north of Philadelphia near this Mercer County community.

Merle E. Causey, 35, of Keyport, driver of the bus, told state police he was doing about 60 miles an hour when he saw the truck ahead in his lane. He said he tried unsuccessfully to swerve around it.

Police said the crash locked the rear of the truck with the right front of the bus.

No specific information on what caused the crash was immediately available.

None of the injured was from South Jersey.

"NEW" TEXAN APPRECIATES GETTYSBURG

A former New Oxford resident, now operating a tire shop at Mission, Texas, devoted praise to Gettysburg in a series of articles appearing in the port LaVaca, Texas newspaper in describing his visit here last summer.

In one article V. L. "Vic" Lawrence described how he and two companions flew in a light plane from LaVaca to Gettysburg and New Oxford, where Lawrence visited his sister, Mrs. Regina McGavin, and visited other relatives.

Describing his trip in the light plane he held, "This type of flying is different from commercial air-routes where you are just a passenger. Here you are a member of the crew and share the challenge of flying. This era of flying reminds me of the old days, about 1910, when but two or three of the more courageous citizens of the town owned automobiles. It was not always the wealthy people who had them, but those with a spirit of adventure." He described leaving Hanover airport at 6 a.m. and arriving in LaVaca, Texas, at 7:30 p.m. that night. "The difference in time zone and daylight saving gave us two additional hours."

An entire column next day was devoted to Gettysburg. He describes the Peace Light, Gettysburg National Museum, the Cyclorama, National Cemetery, Cliff Arquette Museum and Dutch Kitchen among other attractions here, praised all of them, and noted, "The landscaping around the field is really something to see. Of course the government has spent millions of dollars during the past hundred years to make it look as it does today."

Lawrence recalled that he visited some of the veterans of the battle of Gettysburg during the 1913 anniversary and notes that "their accounts of the battle and the accounts today are the same."

He devoted some space to the Fiftieth Anniversary of the battle and held "The 100th anniversary is now being planned for 1963 and if it is anything like 1913 it will be well worth attending."

All commercial and private aircraft flying over East Africa must pay a fee whether they land or not. The fee, established by an act of the East Africa High Commission, depends on the size of the plane.
